

Bernd Oppermann (*1956) was a chair holder for German, European and International Private Law and Commercial law at the law faculty of Leibniz University Hanover, Germany, from 1993 to 2024. For six years, he was Dean of his law faculty, and for eight years member of the academic senate of his university.

He completed the first and second state examination in law at Frankfurt/Main. He holds a Ph.D. (Dr. jur.) from the U of Frankfurt (1986), the habilitation from U of Hamburg (1992), LL.M. degree from U of California (UCLA).

Prof. Oppermann was academic advisor for a European Tempus project on Russian legal education 2003-2006. He was chairman of the ELPIS network of law faculties 1999 – 2016 and European Erasmus Mundus coordinator 2004 – 2012. Recent publications were in the fields of European market law, AI-law, comparative law and legal theory. For his European and international activities, he received the former titles Dr. h.c. (University of Rouen) and Hon.Prof. (UMCS, Lublin).

For details, www.jura.uni-hannover.de/oppermann/.